

The Wissahickon Inn 1883-84 - Henry Howard Houston - 500 W. Willow Grove Ave. Built in the Queen Anne style, this 250-room inn was the first project of Henry Howard Houston, the 19th-century developer of large sections of Chestnut Hill. It was designed by G.W and W.D. Hewitt, the architects for many of Houston's later developments. The inn closed in 1901, and the building was donated to Chestnut Hill Academy – now Springside Chestnut Hill Academy. (Photo: Wendy Concannon)
